GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Writing from New Orleans Sunday, a correspondent says: "The exodus of horses and horsemen set in today. The route of most of them is by way of Nashville and Memphis. As the Chicago season does not open as early as usual this year, many who would otherwise go direct to Lakeside will take in the Tennes

Newport will get its full share of horses, book makers and other material. Ed Austin has done strong missionary work in its interests.

Starter Fitzgerald will leave Wednesday night for London, Ont., where his family has spent the winter, and will arrive in New York a few days before the season opens on April 25 at Aqueduct. Judge Clarence McDowell goes at once to Washington. Colonel R. W. Simmons will remain here until the opening of Morris Park. Secretary Clark will remain here to superintend the rearranging of the track and the erection of new buildings, which work will commence at once when the present meeting comes to an end.

A letter from Memphis to the St. Louis Republic says: "Bob Tucker in person will take Isabey and a 2-year-old filly, Gay Parisienne, by Tournament out of Princess Iskra, to Nashville. Charley Patterson will send May Hempstead and a 2-year-old colt by Fonso. There is much interest manifested in the meeting of Gay Parisienne and May Hempstead. They both worked the track at Montgomery Park yesterday mornienne and May Hempstead. They both worked the track at Montgomery Park yesterday morning, and Tucker's filly negotiated the distance in 51%. May Hempstead's time was 52%, but she was not let down except for the last furlong. When these two were yearlings at Lexington last fall a match between them was about to be arranged, as the opinion of trainers in Kentucky was divided as to which was the speedier of the two. Their meeting in Nashville will therefore be of more than ordinary interest to all who have watched the work of the pair."

The formidable stable of J. W. Schorr & Son. now at Memphis, is composed of the following

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Young Harry Wise, son of a formerly very prominent politician, was ruled off by the California Jockey Club last week for being "in" with the ringing of Mary Nance under the name of Los Rosas at the Oakland track. How a young man of high standing in business and society and a prospective millionaire could de scend to such nefarious courses is the current puzzle in 'Frisco. Al Goodwin, the Texan owner and trainer of Mary Nance, was also ruled off.

All the horses belonging to the firm of Respass & Sharpe will be sold at public auction on the opening day of the Newport meeting. The sale was ordered by the Kenton County Circuit Court, and is for the purpose of settling up the estate of the late Sol Sharpe. The horses that will be offered are Goose Liver, Elusive, Covington Ky, Fred Broens, Esther R, Thorpe and four two-year-olds.

Declarations from the Oakley stakes are due April 1. Declarations from the Derby are $30, Oaks $20, Buckeye Stakes $20, The Diamond, Emerald, Sapphire Stakes and Moerlein Handicap $10, and if the money don't come along the declaration don't go. The Derby will be worth in the neighborhood of $10,000 this year.

The License Committee of the American Turf Congress has refused to grant licenses to Jockeys Morse and W H. Blake for various reasons. Morse is well known to race goers and Blake is a well known Canadian rider.

Ex-jockeys Garner and Slaughter have dissolved partnership as horse owners and Garner will resume riding, probably for his former employer, G. C. Bennett.

Sutton has been barred from running at Ingleside. The contrast between his winning form and his "sulking" form was too pronounced to suit the judges.

The difficulty between Jockey C. Combs and his employers, Tomlinson & Co., has been smoothed over and the boy will rejoin the stable at Memphis.

Backwater from the swollen Ohio river now covers the Newport race track several inches The stables are as yet high and dry, how

The Turf Congress license committee has con cluded to give Jockey Bloss a chance and has given him a license to ride at Little Rock.

Jockey Joe Piggott has engaged to ride for H. L. Frank for the remainder of the year. Algol has been well backed to win the Metropolitan Handicap at Morris Park. Louis H. Ezell has purchased the steeplechase

The fast horse Damocles is reported to have become a roarer.

Winner—B. c. by Royal Hampton—Buttermere.
Start good. Won in a gallop. The next five were driving. Bitter Root was far the best. He is a colt worth watching. Is capable of far better things. Toribio closed strong, under far from good handling. Watch him. Eroica made up a lot of ground near the end. She is ready among her own. Arbaces, brother to Diggs and Sutton, is a promising colt. Was cut off near start and on stretch turn and closed strong. Hohenlohe's forte is a route. He was overweighted, too. Oahu had bad luck and is but a dasher. Aprona was tangled up at start and showed a lot of speed fading away at end. Octuruck showed a lot of speed, too.

Scratched—Nilhau, 117; Defiant, 149; Savonosola, 107; Scintillate, 117.

Start good. Won easily; second driving. Break o'Day was best, is as fit as a good fiddle and had a clear path. Sir Dilke made up a lot of ground. He is not as good as he is rated. Murphy is really good nowadays. He was lucky, too. Claudius favors a route and closed strong. He is a plodder. Star had no chance from the start. He was almost left. Do not take him off the tab. Salisbury was pulled up at start and got an easy race. Cook and McFarlane had little speed. Cavallo ran above the notch.

Young seemed to be short. The race should fit him. Put him on the tab for early action. Primavera was cut off at start and on bend for home. Santello ran his race. Start good. Won very handily. Next four mildly ridden out. Glenn was the right one. He was heavily backed and won like a turf noble, after being hampered on the first turn and in the spread for the stretch run. Daylight is hardly more than a plodder. He is an acrobat, too. He's good though and had quite a lot of early speed today. Burnham is ready for his own kind. He likes a route and finished impressively. Moringa was subdued by a bad ride. Throw out race. Duke of York about ran his race, considering the use made of him and the interference he met on the first and home bends.
